RPL/Credit Transfer Policy and Procedure

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that the assessment of credit transfer (CT) and recognition of prior learning (RPL) into a course at Sydney International Business College (SIBC) follow transparent guidelines and all students are treated equitably.

Scope

This policy applies to all courses at SIBC and to all staff involved in the assessment and recording of CT and RPL.

Policy

Sydney International Business College (SIBC) will implement this policy to ensure an appropriate recognition of course credit within the ESOS framework.

Procedure

RPL (Recognition of Prior Learning)

1. The candidate contacts SIBC and enquires about RPL.
2. SIBC Academic Manager provides the candidate with information about RPL. If the candidate decides they would like to proceed with RPL, SIBC must supply them with a copy of the RPL Self-Assessment Tool.
3. The candidate completes the RPL Self-Assessment Tool, identifying units they would like to apply for and evidence they could submit.
4. The candidate sends their RPL Self-Assessment Tool, a copy of their CV and any certified copies of relevant qualifications back to SIBC.
5. SIBC reviews the self-assessment checklists to determine if the candidate is suitable to proceed with the RPL process. This will include contacting the candidate to discuss the following:

   - Their work experience and anything of interest in their CV (for example, has the candidate worked in a different number of job roles, have they worked in a number of different workplaces, or the same one, professional development experiences, etc).
   - The items they ticked/did not tick in their self-assessments.
   - The third-party person if applicable.

6. The Academic Manager makes a decision on the candidate's suitability for RPL. If the candidate's work experience, skills and knowledge do not accurately reflect the requirements of the qualification or units therein, the candidate should be provided with information about formal training opportunities for this qualification. The candidate can then make a decision as to whether they would like to enroll in the course.
